

3322 Idlewild Dr
Chattanooga, TN 37411

Powered by openhouses.timesfreepress.com

$154,500

2 Bedrooms . 1 Bathroom . 1,470 Sqft

Step back to the 1920's in this charmer home with character of the era. When you walk in, you will see the arched doors and original newly stained hardwoods with new quarter round. This home is tucked away on a private corner lot off South Seminole and 3 miles from everything in Chattanooga. While keeping the original charm, the large bedrooms have been updated with new ceilings and paint. All new windows throughout the home. Three-year-old central heating and air unit and new PVC plumbing all the way to the road. The oversized, covered front porch is one of the many inviting things this home offers including high ceilings as you enter the living room with the original fireplace. The dining room has room for your dining room suite and more. Bright natural-light flows throughout the home and keeps the EPB bill to a minimum. Updated kitchen that has a side bonus room which offers many uses; sunroom, storage, sewing room, or office. The kitchen offers many cabinets. Off the dining room, the hall (which offers a nice storage closet) leads to two bedrooms with natural light, oversized closets, and original hardwood floors. The all new tiled to the ceiling full bath has a corner soaking tub and separate tiled shower. Built-in tile shelves offers more storage. In addition, shelves built with original 1920 barn hardwood flow...

Jim Lea

PHONE

423-664-1610