An updated and remodeled home perches itself on Missionary Ridge. Set on a corner lot, the home affords space to entertain, garden and enjoy walks in the beautiful neighborhood. This 1940's home maintains its charm and character with all of the modern conveniences the seller has recently completed. With fresh paint on the exterior and interior of the house and updated electricity! All the main living is on one level. The kitchen boasts of a full remodel, including granite countertops, new appliances, new light fixtures, "no-slam" cabinets & drawers and an eat-in breakfast nook. From the kitchen, the house opens up to the dining room, with built-in shelving and then into a large living area with a wood fireplace mantel. Along the hallway, built-in shelving offers clever storage space. The house uses its space to hold 4 full bedrooms with 2 full bathrooms. A surprise bonus to this house is the full unfinished basement. Great for extra storage, workshop or even to park a small car or bikes.Â
