When you walk into this home you won't believe how wide open it is. The 1st thing you will notice is the beautiful the stairs are that lead up to a landing that is open to the main floor. Then you will look right into the 14x15 great room with the fireplace being the focal point. The fireplace has windows on one side and a door on the other side leading to your amazing covered deck. Then you will notice on the other side of the door are a set of windows in your breakfast nook. This home is full of natural light. You can either sit in your 10x8 breakfast nook or walk right out to the deck and enjoy your morning coffee or just enjoy the deck and view any time of time of day. The kitchen is 10x11 and is open to the family room. The 1st floor is completed with a dining room the master bedroom & bath and then a half bath and laundry room. The home has 2 bedrooms up and a full bath with an optional bedroom
