Defining the amenity driven market in which we live, Aaron Tidwell exceeds your expectations in this richly appointed home tucked away in the convenient and affordable county community of Greystone Pointe off Ooltewah Ringgold Road. This meticulously appointed full masonry brick and cement fiber siding home impresses from covered entry to covered outdoor living area overlooking its tree framed back. Foyer opens to formal dining room easily inviting crowds or providing the perfect setting for casual family meals below the glow of unique, tasteful lighting not found locally. With an abundance of mission style painted cabinets in practical designed kitchen, it is as gorgeous and warm as it is functional with center island perfect for food prep or serving completely opens to the spacious family room. Family room flawlessly flows out to covered porch surrounded by natural, private setting overlooking an inviting, green backyard for complete relaxation at the end of your long work day. Hand hewn hardwoods dominates the main level and stair treads to second level. Main level master is quietly & privately tucked away from the living areas. Bath with designer tiled floor, a custom shower and a frameless glass surround, and quartz counters that are very family friendly. Walk-in closet allows...
