Current photo taken 3/21 Welcome, Home to Hope Ranch! This beautiful new construction home features it all. When you walk through the front door you are greeted with a dining room that makes you excited about hosting a dinner party or two. The wainscoting, the paint color, and that dining room light. That light is a real WOW factor. Your master bedroom & bath are not just your normal master bedroom & bath. The size of them will just take your breath away. When you walk in the bathroom I'm sure you are going to say "Honey you have got to see this." The tile the vanities, the storage, and the size. This is the perfect place to hide with your bag of Milano Cookies. The Great Room is wide open you can see up to the 2nd floor and then it's also open to the kitchen. I can't really call this a kitchen it should be called this is my "Dream Kitchen" The colors, the storage, the island, the breakfast area. Customer cabinetry adorns the walls in the kitchen with stainless appliance and granite counter-tops. Coffered ceilings, unique decorative walls, modern light fixtures, and the tile selections are a must see. It will be an area that the whole family will love hanging out in. You also have a very large office and another full bath on the 1st floor. Right outside the laundry room and next to the garage is storage bench hall coat rack with hook...
