Dream Homes Egg Hunt

Have you ever thought to yourself "One Day....." while driving across Missionary Ridge in the springtime marveling at the views and appreciating the architecture from an era gone by could now be a reality for you. An exceptional home that sits on a double lot, with exceptional professional landscaping and outdoor privacy is now available. Built in 1936 this home has it all; impeccable workmanship, style, and as a bonus; million-dollar-views! Entertain in comfort, inside or outside made especially easy with a private wine cellar. The kitchen is customized with cabinets, tile and beautiful granite. A spa-like master suite has a separate sitting area for private moments with a good book. Decorating options are boundless. The owners have chosen to create an artist's showcase displaying contemporary pieces which reflect their personalities. If your styling is more traditional, the home's surroundings offer a background suitable for a classic look featuring exposed painted brick, pedestal sink, crown moldings, tall baseboards and beautifully trimmed windows. Whatever your design taste, this home can...
