Invest in your lifestyle and live where you play. Life is better on the lake! This immaculate, all brick, custom, waterfront home has year around deep water, two-story boat dock, and one of Chattanooga's most spectacular views of the Tennessee River. There have been many updates throughout the home, including all Anderson windows and doors. As you enter the two-story foyer, you will notice the natural lighting from almost all of the rooms on the back of the home. The living room is open to the spacious den with wall to wall windows and glass sliding doors that opens to the covered deck and hot tub. The updated eat-in kitchen has granite countertops, tile backsplash, stainless appliances, and a pantry. The main-level also has a formal dining room and an office with a wall of windows totake in the water views. The upper level features two spacious master suites, each with their own private deck that captures the endless water views. There are also two additional bedrooms and full bath on the upper level. The third level offers a 23'6 X 14'11+/- bonus room. The lower level offers a rec room, exercise area, and a two-car utility garage. The main level has a two-car garage as well. There are multiple outdoor areas that are covered and uncovered that make this home ideal for entertaining. The oversized two-...
