Stately, 2 story, all brick home with a partially finished basement, picturesquely situated on a .68 acre lot with breathtaking views of the lake and multiple outdoor living spaces from which to enjoy them. Located in the River's Edge neighborhood, this exclusive waterfront community offers sidewalks, a community pool and clubhouse, a short golf cart ride to the Harbor Lights Marina and is convenient to Hixson, the 153 and the 27. If parking and storage is a must, you will love that it has a single and a double car garage on the main level with another single garage and wonderful off-street parking on the terrace level. While the exterior exudes elegance and curb appeal, the interior is equally as impressive and boasts quality luxurious finishes while remaining comfortable and inviting viathe tastefully updated decor and open floor plan. All of the rooms are spacious, including the foyer with sweeping staircase and enlarged doorway to the formal dining room. The 2 story great room has wonderful natural lighting, a gas fireplace with custom poured concrete surround and built-ins on either side, as well as access to the rear deck which wraps around to the front porch, taking advantage of the water views, while also overlooking the lush back yard. The great room has decorative columns on two sides and...
