Elegant, yet comfortable, 4 bedroom 2 full and 2 half bath home with the master on the main level and a partially finished daylight basement with fantastic outdoor living spaces on Lookout Mountain. When you think of mountain living, an image of this warm and inviting home should come to mind with its gracious wrap-around covered porch, mature landscaping to soften the lovely natural lighting throughout, lofty ceilings and tall doors, hardwood and tile floors, crown moldings, wainscoting, and more. Many wonderful updates and amenities have been added over the years, most notably to the master suite and kitchen, but they were completed in such a manner as to preserve the integrity of the era in which the home was built while satisfying today's needs and decor. The home boasts a traditional floor plan with both formal and informal living spaces providing a great flow for indoor to outdoor entertaining. As you enter the home from the covered front porch, you find yourself in a reception area that opens to the living room with a gas fireplace the perfect spot to greet your guests. The formal dining room is just ahead and conveniently adjoins the kitchen and breakfast area which were recently updated in 2014 and has white cabinetry, octagon tile and maple wood countertops, stainless appliances,...
