The street presence alone will steal your heart and make you want to call it home. A warm & welcoming covered front porch framed by hearty, mature hardwoods on a perfectly level, plush green lawn with private fenced back. Conjuring visions of a time gone by where the kids played in the yard because they had one and where they walked to school because they could! Located across the street from the school path to Westview Elementary in the very desirable county (lower taxes), gated, sidewalk & (well needed during a Chattanooga summer) pool community, this Emerald Valley full brick custom defines the image of home. Setting the tone for comfortable living, freshly refinished real hardwood floors greet you at the covered double door entry into the wide foyer flanked by the perfect study, music room or library with fireplace and the formal dining room with fireplace. A spacious family room with fireplace (that's right THREE fireplaces) does not disappoint easily providing room for the entire extended family and friends or as a cozy place for more intimate family gatherings opens to a covered porch with stamped concrete floor bringing the outside in. Expansive kitchen allowing for everyone to stay in the kitchen (where they always do) with updated stainless gas cooking and a flawless flow of design that will gain...
