OPEN HOUSE this Sunday, Oct 6th from 2:00-4:00 pm! This gorgeous home has been remodeled from top to bottom! The owner, however, went to great lengths to restore the original charm by salvaging most of the front windows, the soffits, some transoms and the woodwork around the front door. Most of the front porch, the fireplace and the brick work in the kitchen are original. One of many beautiful features is the original hearty pine floors that have been refinished. The new kitchen includes new cabinets, stainless steel appliances and granite counter tops. For buyers that would prefer an electric stove, the kitchen has been wired for one. A gas stove is currently installed, so the new owner can easily switch out after closing. All new roof with new siding and gutters. Two new bathrooms have been added, with the Master bath having a beautiful shower. For a buyer who likes the charm of an older home, but is worried about old electrical and plumbing, you are covered. The electrical has brand new wiring and a panel, the plumbing is new and a street cut was completed for the sewer. The high ceilings and large windows give this home a lot of natural light, which is wonderful for a one story. New central gas heat, sheet rock, water heater, painting, trim, deck and lighting add to the value. Low utility bills for an older...
