Quintessential Lookout Mountain home surrounded in lush, green tree framed setting conveniently located as you crest the top of the mountain. Embracing the best of all worlds with more comfortable temperatures, suburban space while offering walk ability to shops and the scenic and park opportunities offered living on Chattanooga's Lookout Mountain. With floor-to-ceiling windows that surround the house and capture an abundance of natural light throughout, assuring open living space only reinforced by its 10 foot ceilings adding to its volume. A seamless flow from foyer to main family room to dining to keeping and kitchen, with all overlooking a natural setting of park like green - back and front. Beautifully and immaculately maintained, this four bedroom 4.5 bath home invites families of every dynamic with main level master and main level guest suite. Storage and parking will never be in short supply. Thoughtfully planned and designed for a growing family or for one scaling back to just one level living with second level accommodations that easily host visiting family and friends. Impeccably appointed details from entry to end, rich in character in the most sophisticated, clean line finishes that will fit the needs from traditional to the most transitional decorating palates. Live Chattanooga and...
