If you are looking for a very unique lake property, then stop and take a look at this one. It has a lot to offer all family members and more....Great one level living for the parents, the kids can have their own private space on another level and decks galore. This level has two bedrooms and a bonus room plus a den as well. On The third level there is even a workshop in a forth car garage. In this home there is also an art studio with tremendous storage space and a wine cellar. Remodel of the kitchen, master bath and downstairs Jack and Jill bath as well. New roof, newer garage doors and lifts, new sundeck installed last month above covered boat dock with lift and a floating dock as well.Great layout in this home with space to entertain and enjoy the exceptional views of the lake and white oak mountain from most rooms in the house. All but one have decks to enjoy the views. This home creates a well located escape just minutes from downtown and Ooltewah. This home has too many updates to list. Come take a look at this private resort lake property that is hidden away for you and your family to enjoy. Properties in this community rarely come up for sale, so take the time to consider this as a great option for your lake home. ALL visitors to this home must call or text the listing agent before arriving to the open house.
