So step inside and prepare to be wowed! The Brazilian cherry hardwood floors are gorgeous and the color scheme is soothing and welcoming. The living room has tons of natural light, a wood burning fireplace, beautiful built in bookshelves, and is open to the dining room and a really nice sunroom that is a great extension of the living space. (The sunroom is not included in the square footage.) The kitchen has tons of cabinets and counterspace, an amazing pantry and a nice eat in area that overlooks the backyard. Three additional bedrooms and two bathrooms round out the rest of the main living area. But wait . . . downstairs you'll find another bedroom, family room and a full bath. This is a lovely daylight basement that is currently being used as a work at home space but has endless possibilities for your family.
