LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION! Wouldn't you like to sit on your front porch and listen to the calming sounds of the paddleboat on the Tennessee River or the whack of a golf ball off the 12th tee? It's all possible from 1107 Concord St. on the Northshore. From the photos we've attached, you can see how your front yard IS the River where walking and jogging through the neighborhood is a daily event. But step inside to find classic elegance where this 1930s bungalow was transformed in 2000 to a 4,000-square-foot-beauty. We will leave you to browse the floorplan and photos to discover all the features this home has to offer. There's room for everyone-- during the next quarantine--to have privacy with two large bedrooms up and two down. One bedroom has its own full bath, a private entrance with no steps, and a multi-function room. The other bedroom could also be the second room of the private office with built-in bookcases and half bath. This "West Wing" office has a spectacular view of the River and easy access to the powder room. Of course, it has a gorgeous living room, dining room, and kitchen. But add to that the huge walk-in pantry, casual living area in the kitchen complete with fireplace, and bar/butler's pantry between the kitchen and formal dining room. Upstairs is the master bedroom...
