Southern Living at its best - gorgeous new construction home at the foot of Lookout Mtn, just across the line from St. Elmo in Georgia. The rocking chair front porch welcomes you into this large home. Windows across the back give you great light and view of Lookout Mtn. This plan features a main level office, great room with fireplace, open concept kitchen and dining, master bedroom and ensuite and laundry room. Upstairs are two large bedrooms and bath. The double garage has extra space for storage or workshop. The large covered back porch is the perfect place to unwind. Make this home yours now and still be able to pick finishes.
