Don't miss this lovely 1978 split-level on a huge level lot and featuring an open floor plan! When you walk in you will notice the character and that the house has been well cared for. The kitchen/dining/living area on the main floor has been opened up giving it a light, modern feel. Just off the open living area is a spacious screened-in porch - perfect for kicking back and enjoying the outdoors without the pesky mosquitos. The kitchen opens to the spacious two-car carport and a small office with built-in desk and cabinets. Upstairs are three bedrooms and two full baths. A few steps down from the main level is a large family room with fireplace. There's also a one-car garage that would make a perfect workshop, man-cave, or storage area. There's also a nice, clean utility room with washer and dryer hook-ups. With mature trees, this lovely corner lot is perfect for recreation and family time. You'll love 3009 Greenwood Dr. NW! Restrictions, utility costs, square footage, listed school zones and anything of concern to the Buyer should be verified by the Buyer prior to the expiration of their inspection/due diligence period.
