Absolutely stunning, all brick home, pristinely situated on a double lot just off the 3rd tee of the Council Fire Golf Course in the heart of East Brainerd. This beautiful home boasts both formal, elegant living spaces, as well as a comfortable open floor plan, making it the perfect venue for family and/or entertaining. No detail was overlooked in the finishing of this home which will be immediately apparent as you enter the 2 story foyer with its sweeping staircase, intricate moldings and decorative lighting, and you will find such amenities throughout the home. The main level also features a spacious living room with a gas fireplace and built-in display shelving on either side, a formal dining room that is spacious enough for even your largest family heirloom and is conveniently adjoined to the kitchen area via a double sided butler's pantry. The heart of the home is the gathering room that opens to the breakfast area, sunroom and kitchen while overlooking the rear patio and golf course and also has a gas fireplace and beautiful built-ins. The kitchen was well designed with great countertop space and plenty of cabinetry, including the center island with prep sink, a Thermador gas cooktop with decorative tile backsplash, Thermador convection wall ovens and warming drawer, Bosch dishwasher and...
