This stately, all brick home family home is located on the front of Signal Mountain in the "much sought after" neighborhood of Carriage Hill. As you enter the large foyer, you immediately notice the rich hardwood floors that flow on most of the first level. The sidelights in the front door are leaded glass and the door is crowned with a traditional transom. To the right is the formal living room currently used as an office, formal dining room to the left and large family room with fireplace and wet bar straight ahead. The chef's kitchen is centered around an island with a solid surface cooktop, Bosch double ovens, dual drawer dishwasher, custom cabinetry, ample granite counter top space and a breakfast nook that looks onto the new deck. The yard is large, lush and will extend your living space outside for most of the year. From the foyer the staircase leads to the upper level with the master bedroom to the right at the top of the stairs and the other 3 bedrooms to the left. The large master has a gorgeous vaulted ceiling and the fabulous en suite is a complete renovation. This includes a large tiled, walk'in shower, separate soaking tub and double sinks on marble countertops. The custom closet system is all new in the large master walk in closet. Down the large hall leads to 3 additional bedrooms, with each one...
